Report of officers and committees:

Animal control Officer – Jacqueline Frye:

No Report

CEO – Larry Lyle:

Larry received an application from Pie Tree Orchards. He has checked on some permits that were issued. He checked Stan Sylvia property, James Popkin - siding is done, Don & Linda Bradley – Framing is complete, Dan & Julie McQueen - checked on the erosion control – more hay bales are needed. Lori stated that Durward Parkinson has a draft consent agreement done and Lori will be talking with him about it. Larry also stated that Steve Stewart from Khiel Excavation is no longer with Khiel and Darrell Cox is now the new guy taking care of erosion on the McQueen right of way. Larry also stated that he went to two days of training classes. He traveled 70 miles for class with a total of 258 hours and 42 hours time.

Clerk – Alberta Ridlon:

Alberta had the Selectmen sign five forms for John O'Donnell for his employees to have with them when they do the revaluation,

Treasurer - Kim Ashley:

Kim has some security concerns about being in the office some nights alone. There were a couple guys that came in the office asking a lot of questions about things and made Kim feel a little uncomfortable. Bruce is going to look into talking to WAM Security in Bridgton to find out some information.

SVFD – Tim Cook:

No Report

Road Commissioner – Stephen Bennett:

Lori reported that Trull Brook was being fixed. She received an email from Colin Holm of LEA letting her know the road had washed with all the rain. Wayne reminded Lori about getting the side of the road fixed by Wayne's mailbox.

Admin. Assistant – Diana Curtis (DJ):

Old Business:

Bruce brought an issue to the Selectmen's attention that there is concern about taking down a big Hemlock on the outside of the Ridlonville cemetery. A quote was received from Q team of Naples to remove three trees in or around the cemetery. All Selectmen agreed to take the big Hemlock down. Bruce needs to find out if Q team is planning on taking the big Hemlock as part of their payment. Bill Centamore is interested in the tree.

New Business:

Bruce Taylor stated that there is a question about the correct address for Fred & Victoria Rothbaum. Not sure if there address is 112 or 114.
